

Enforcement Rules of Lost and Found

Amended in the 2nd School Affair Meeting, Academic Year 2000, on May 5th, 2011

1. These Rules are formulated in accordance with Articles 803-810 in the Civil Law and based on the condition of NCTU.
2. Upon discovering a lost item, a member of our school (staff member, faculty member, employee, or student) shall give it to the Discipline Section and have the item processed in accordance with these Rules; failure to comply with these Rules shall result in legal repercussions.
3. The lost item is to be claimed by its rightful owner within six months; the Clerk at the Discipline Section shall record and return the item upon such a request. A public announcement shall be made should the owner has not come forward.
4. If the item is in nature perishable, has an expiry date, or is costly to be kept, it may be auctioned away and the money is to be claimed by the owner.
5. An item that is not claimed by its owner within six months of public announcement shall be treated in accordance with the following:
 - (1) For an item that is in good order and appropriate for an auction, the Discipline Section shall hold an auction and put the money in the Students' Emergency Financing Fund for the Student Emergency Financing Committee to utilize.
 - (2) If the item is inappropriate for an auction or not sold in an auction, it shall be destroyed or recycled by the Discipline Section.
6. The person who finds and gives the item to the Lost-and-Found shall be rewarded accordingly.

These Rules shall be implemented after being approved at a Student Affair Meeting. The same shall apply to any amendments hereto.
